Amanohuna

Vibrational Healing for Yourself and Others

30 years ago, when I went to Hawaii, Spirit told me I would meet a new spiritual teacher. I was very surprised to find that that teacher turned out to be a rock! When I touched one of the Kahuna Rocks on Waikiki Beach, an ancient healing energy called Amanohuna was transmitted to me. I was also instructed in how to awaken the gift of healing in others. Amanohuna may also increase your intuitive abilities.

In this One Day Workshop you will:

1. Learn the full history of Amanohuna and Reiki.
2. Have your chakras awakened and retuned through sound and vibration to transmit the frequencies of healing.
3. Learn how to administer a full body healing treatment to yourself.
4. Learn how to administer a full body healing treatment to someone else.
5. Receive a manual with those instructions.
6. Give and receive a full body healing treatment.
7. Be certified as a First Degree Amanohuna Healing Energy Practitioner.

Arthur Cataldo has been practicing and teaching vibrational energy healing for 30 years. He is a Reiki Master /Teacher, an Amanohuna Master /Teacher and a Karuna Reiki Master/Teacher. He is also trained in Regenesi, now known as Quantum Touch, Therapeutic Touch, and a number of other healing modalities. A former clinical psychologist, he is also trained in clinical hypnosis, including past life regression. He now also practices Cymatherapy[®] sound therapy.
